

TOP LEFT— Both Charlie and Rose Farrell were always impeccably dressed. Charlie remained a dapper dandy well into his later years. Even in his 80s, Charlie was seldom seen without his pocket watch or in anything other than a suit and tie, just as he appears in this photo, taken in the 1950s.

MIDDLE LEFT — His wife, Rose, was also fashion conscious. She continued to wear hats and gloves until her death in 1957. This photo dates back to the 1950s.

BOTTOM LEFT — Their oldest son, Glenn, joined the family business in 1946.

BELOW — Helen Drewfs Farrell, Glenn's wife, in her wedding dress. They were married in 1934.

